The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

All fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, William Michael Munz, is hereby committed on Count One of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 70 months.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

10. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of substance abuse and mental health treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
11. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's order pertaining to such payment;

14. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall not be present in any area known to him to be a location where members of the Mongols gang meet and/or assemble.

The court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse and mental health treatment providers. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment providers is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conducts a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The Court recommends that the defendant be housed at Terminal Island to facilitate visitation with family and friends and to continue mental health treatment.

The Court recommends placement in the 500 hour drug treatment program.

Defendant is advised of his appeal rights.
